Review Draft Statements (Homework)

- Apply the rubric:
  1. Linked to the Mission Statement
  2. Forward/Future Looking
  3. Concise
  4. Not Cliché
  5. Measurable
- Does it bookend our mission statement?
  - Does it represent an aspirational state?

Team Activity

- Think-Pair-Share Activity

- These are not final vision statements
- Cut and paste, along with wordsmithing is still possible

Draft Statements

1

- A future where students from all backgrounds can form a sense of belonging, achieve their educational goals and make a living that allows them to thrive in Silicon Valley and beyond.

2

- Foothill College fosters continuous innovation to cultivate a vibrant community where students flourish intellectually and personally, empowered to forge their unique educational and career journeys in a rapidly changing world.

Draft Statements

3

- Foothill College sets the standard through continuous innovation, sustaining equitable conditions that ensure students experience a nurturing and supportive environment to:
  - Pursue personal and intellectual growth,
  - Discover their education and career paths, and
  - Successfully navigate the challenges of an evolving, rapidly changing society.

Draft Statement

4

- Foothill College aspires to empower a diverse community of learners to engage in a life of inquiry, adaptability, and continuous growth. We envision a future where our students think critically, collaboratively tackle challenges, and thrive as engaged global citizens in a rapidly changing world.

Team Feedback

NEXT STEPS:

Statements #3 and #4 received most votes

- FH 2030 leads will merge statements (shared doc);
- Team members have 1 week to wordsmith before soliciting feedback from constituencies
- FH 2030 leads to provide brief slide deck

- What statements stood out to you?
- What did you like?
- What would you change/leave out?
- Do the statements fit our rubric?

Where do we go from here?

- Identify strategies and process to develop awareness and solicit feedback from college stakeholders

- Think-Pair-Share Activity
  - Pairs represent different constituencies

College Communication

- What is the team members' role?
- What about a survey?
- What spaces should the proposed vision statement be discussed?

Communication Support

- Foothill 2030 leads will provide:
  - Short slide deck
  - Brief talking points
- We have a website: https://foothill.edu/2030-foothill/vision-review-committee.html

Identify the Communication Plan

- Discussions share out
- Goal: Agree upon a team plan

Next Steps

- Schedule one final 90-minute meeting in May (in person)
- Review collected feedback
- Finalize draft vision statement
