

The Mission Statement review group has produced two statements to present for consideration and feedback:

Believing a well-educated population is essential to sustaining and enhancing a democratic society, Foothill College offers programs that support students to empower themselves to achieve their goals as members of the workforce and as global citizens. We put students first to create a college community where success is not predictable for any marginalized group.

&

Foothill College believes a well-educated population is essential to sustaining and enhancing a democratic society. We offer programs that support students to empower themselves to achieve their goals as members of the workforce and as global citizens. We put students first to create a college community where success is not predictable for any marginalized group.