

PRESIDENT SEEKS RECOMMENDATIONS/FEEDBACK FROM GOVERNANCE ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-21

Community & Communication Council:

- What questions do the Community & Communication Council want the College President to ask of the Community & Communication Council?
- In collaboration with the Revenue and Resources Committee, how should the college facilities be organized to promote community among students and among faculty/staff
 - Include response to the Design Thinking joint study group's proposal.
 - Collaborate with Revenue & Resource Council to update the Facilities Master Plan for expenditure of Measure G.
- How can a college promote "community" during shelter-in-place.
- Led by the Council, should we revise our Institutional Learning Outcomes to incorporate elements of Service Leadership? See last year's Strategic Objectives.
- Assess governance and provide a Mid-Term Report on the Quality Focused Essay regarding governance to ACCJC by June 30, 2021.
- How can the college "encourage employee participation in leadership and activities that engages them with the College and the community." For example, can we better utilize PGA and other professional development funds to increase service on campus for students and employees (e.g., full-time and part-time faculty/staff participating in global trips, serve as club advisors)? (professional development for faculty, staff, administrators)

From Education Master Plan 2015: These goals are approached in a way that exemplifies Foothill College's culture of innovation and problem solving, with emphasis on eliminating disproportionate impact among student groups

Strengthen a sense of community and commitment to the College's mission; expand participation from all constituencies in shared governance.

- Encourage student participation in leadership and activities outside the classroom (including service/work-based learning) that engages students with the College and the community.
- Provide effective onboarding, support and professional development for all college employees.
- Encourage employee participation in leadership and activities that engages them with the College and the community.
