

“Ethic of Caring”

Service Leadership & Foothill College

Prosper & Partners Team

PROSPER
— & —
PARTNERS

Our Team

Rebecca Berkey, PhD

Chevine Anderson, PMP

Vandy Kemp, MA

Chad Kee, PhD

Colber Prosper, MS

10 mins to gather your thoughts

Reading & Prompts

1. Service Learning at Community Colleges: Synthesis, Critique, and Recommendations for Future Research
 - What did you find interesting about the reading?
 - Are any of the points made, pertinent to campus constituents or to the current campus climate? If so, what specific points and why?
 - Using the reading as a reference, what are some potential talking points that could be created to galvanize campus support for Service Leadership?

Reading & Prompts

1. Service-Learning and Student Diversity Outcomes: Existing Evidence and Directions for Future Research
 - What did you find interesting about the reading?
 - Are any of the points made, pertinent to campus constituents or to the current campus climate? If so, what specific points and why?
 - Using the reading as a reference, what are some potential talking points that could be created to galvanize campus support for Service Leadership?

Reading & Prompts

1. Admin 101: How to Plan Strategic Planning

- What did you find interesting about the reading?
- Are any of the points made, pertinent to campus constituents or to the current campus climate? If so, what specific points and why?
- Using the reading as a reference, what are some potential talking points that could be created to galvanize campus support for Service Leadership?

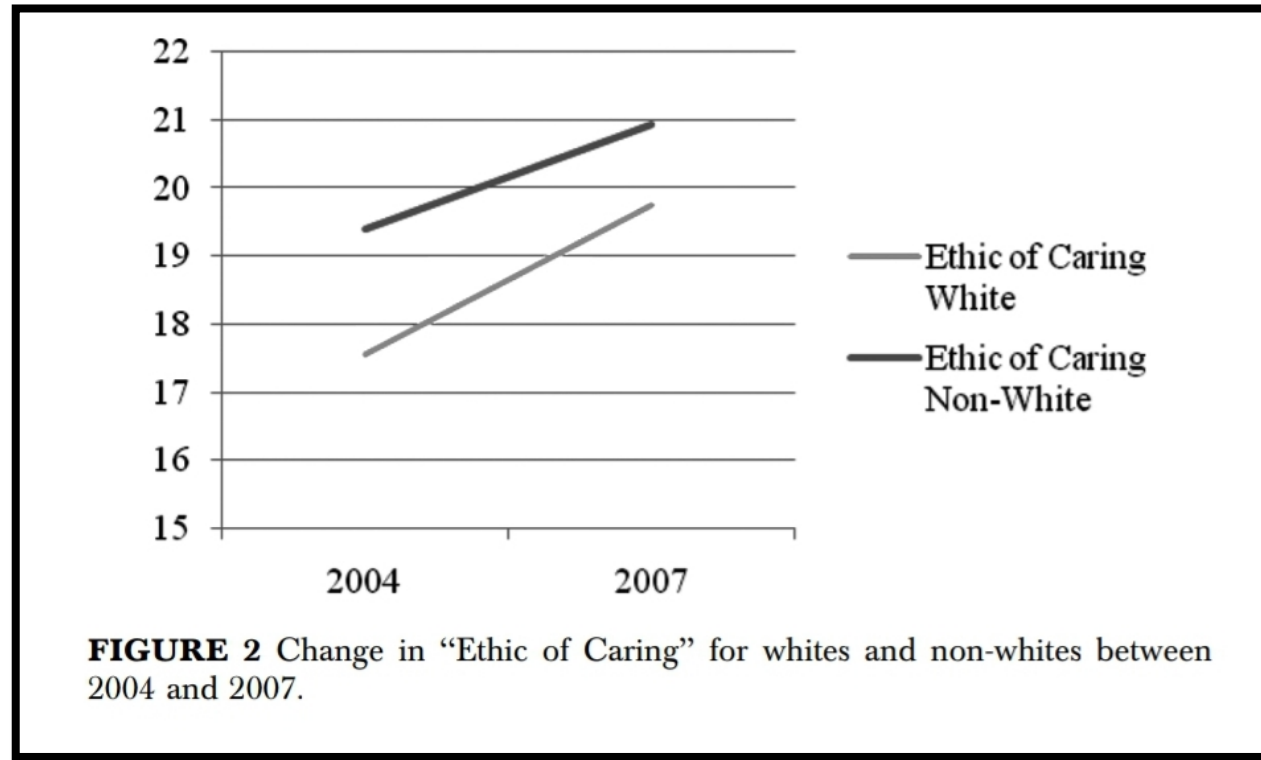

Debrief

- What are your takeaways from the readings?
- What institutional needs does Service Leadership fulfill?
- How do the C&C position itself as a conduit for institutional change?
- Should we have a script? If so, what should it say?
- Next steps?

Ethic of Caring

- “...reducing pain and suffering in the world; helping to promote racial understanding; becoming involved in programs to clean up the environment; becoming a community leader; influencing social values; influencing the political structure” (Collins & Collins, 2011, p. 85).

Questions

PROSPER
—&—
PARTNERS