Heroes of the Nation

The largest orphanage and school in Kenya, HTN is responsible for housing and educating more than 500 African children. In addition to feeding and clothing its children, HTN is dedicated to nurturing its children's potential and empowering them to become the next generation of Kenya's knowledgeable, compassionate leaders. You can support HTN by making a financial gift at htn.org.

Stop the Violence speech is dedicated to Hiram Lawrence Jr.

At just two years old, Hiram was killed as a result of gun violence. According to his father, "He is resting in Heaven. He was a fighter who will never be forgotten. His legacy lives on forever."

Foothill College does not discriminate against any person in the provision of any program or service based on age, color, gender, marital status, national or ethnic origin, physical/mental disability, race, religion or sexual orientation.

Coordination of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 prohibiting sex discrimination; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 governing accessibility is the responsibility of Student Affairs & Activities Dean Patricia Hyland, (650) 949-7241. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) may contact the Disability Resource Center at (650) 949-7017 or DobbinsMargo@foothill.edu.

Prospective students are advised that a lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission to, or participation in vocational education programs at Foothill College as long as other, if any, program admission standards are met. This notice is a requirement of the Guidelines for Elimination of Discrimination & Denial of Services on the Basis of Race, Color, National Origin, Sex & Handicap (Federal Register, Vol. 44, No. 56). Reglamento sobre Limitaciones en el Idioma Inglés-Se les aconseja a posibles estudiantes que la carencia del idioma Inglés no será una barrera para la admisión, o participación en programas de educación vocacional en Foothill College, siempre y cuando todos los otros, si existieran, criterios de admisión del programa sean completados. Esta nota es un requisito de la Pauta para la Eliminación de la Discriminación y Negativa de Servicios en Base a la Raza, Color, Nacionalidad de Origen, Sexo, e Impedimento (Registro Federal, Vol. 44, No. 56).

Colors of Hope Art Exhibit in the Foothill College Semans Library Gallery

Foothill College student Nadine Zellner teaches art classes for students with special needs who reside in her Palo Alto community. Using the leftover paints from her students' projects and recycled boards, she creates repurposed art. A native of Harlem, her works reflect appreciation for all art forms, vigor for learning and hope for a better tomorrow. In addition to serving as vice president of the Foothill College Transfer Club, she is an artist and volunteer. She enjoys craft works, green projects, writing poetry, sewing and fashion, but her first love is music.

Exhibit Hours:

Mondays & Thursdays, 8 a.m.–5 p.m.;

Tuesdays & Wednesdays, 8 a.m.–7 p.m.; and

Fridays, 8 a.m.–4 p.m.

Save-a-Student Donation Drive

Help another Foothill student who's struggling to make ends meet by making a donation of basic school supplies and non-perishable food items to Foothill's Save-a-Student Donation Drive. Drop off donations in the Student Activities Office (Room 2007) or during any College Hour event on Wednesdays, from noon to 1 p.m. There is great need for the following donation items: college-ruled paper, highlighter markers, pencils pens, notebooks, canned veggies, canned meats, instant soups, peanut butter, apple sauce, oatmeal and other cereals, canned beans, dry pasta and pasta sauce. Cash, gift card and freshly laundered clothing donations are also welcome. No donation is too small and all are greatly appreciated. All donations must be received by the Student Activities Office by Thursday, Feb. 21, at 4 p.m. You're eligible to receive these donated items when you're currently enrolled in at least one unit, have an OwlCard, express need for donations, and sign up at the Outreach Office/Ambassador lounge (Campus Center Room 2150). Donations will be distributed to eligible students Thursday, Feb. 28, from noon to 4 p.m., and while supplies last.
