

Spring 2012 Administrative Unit Outcomes Survey

2012 Foothill College Administrative Unit Outcomes Survey

Foothill College's administrative units participate in the student learning outcomes assessment cycle to ensure that they are providing the proper support to the divisions and programs that interact directly with students. The purpose of this survey is to get feedback from faculty and classified staff regarding administrative unit functions so that the college can continue to offer high-quality instructional programs, student services, and library and learning support services.

This survey closes on June 5th at 5:00 pm.
